i have found in an old diary a quotation from stephane mallarmé saying that his epoch was troubled by the trembling of the veil of the temple as those words were still true during the years of my life described in this book i have chosen the trembling of the veil for its title except in one or two trivial details where i have the warrant of old friendship i have not without permission quoted conversation or described occurrence from the private life of named or recognisable persons i have not felt my freedom abated for most of the friends of my youth are dead and over the dead i have an historian's rights they were artists and writers and certain among them men of genius and the life of a man of genius because of his greater sincerity is often an experiment that needs analysis and record at least my generation so valued personality that it thought so i have said all the good i know and all the evil i have kept nothing back necessary to understanding the fear of god is a primary spiritual grace deposited in the redeemed and pardoned soul scripture is filled with directives in obedience before god based on godly fear because it is a principal grace it is part of the beginning of grace why are not more christian books taken up with the fear of the lord it is because at the outset such seems to be very offensive to modern christian sensibilities and yet the fear of the lord is the beginning of wisdom and the knowledge of the holy one is understanding prov 9 10 many christians look to christ like they look to a boyfriend or girlfriend rather than as the holy god who deals with sin through infinite wrath on the cross christ directed his disciples to a holy fear of god matt 10 28 jesus is the loving savior but this is bound up in the astonishment and amazement and respect of god's being and character in relation to sin and salvation he is to be feared what is godly fear jeremiah burroughs will answer this more than adequately he uses his primary text in isaiah 66 2 but to this man will i look even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit and trembleth at my word knowledge of the word of god produces and cultivates the fear of god in spirit endowed believers it produces a trembling and contrite christian as a result he will show that scripture informs the pardoned soul to understand god in the light of holy fear and trembling in turn that becoming a tender heart to follow the word and will of god as he demonstrates further from 2 kings 22 14 because thine heart was tender holy dread and tenderness of heart are inseparably linked together as gospel fear
